When Martha (Mattie) Ann Buckhouse Caldwell Edmondson was passing away, and leaving this old world she was singing a song as she drew her last breath. The song was "O Come Angel Band."

Mattie's Song "O Come Angel Band"

I
My latest sun is sinking fast. My race is nearly run
My strongest trials now are past, my triumph has begun.

II
I know I'm nearing Holy rank of friends and kindred dear;
I brush the dew of Jordan's banks, the crossing must be near;

III
I've almost gained my heavenly home, my spirit loudly sings'
The Holy ones, behold they come. I hear the noise of wings;

IV
O bear my longing heart to Him, who bled and died for me;
Whose blood now cleanses from all sin, and gives me Victory.

Chorus

O Come Angel band, Come, and around me stand.
O bear me away on your snowy winds, to my immortal home.
O bear me away on your snowy winds, to my immortal home.

When Bertie Arbelle and Jesse Harrison Cox got married they didn't have much. Mattie was expecting Marion and wasn't a bit well so they went back to Sam and Matties and stayed several months. There had to be some one there to help Mattie with the cooking, washing, etc. They were living in a 2 room house and there were 8 kids besides Sam and Mattie and Jesse after Marion came. Then Mattie took sick and died when Marion was a little over $\frac{1}{2}$ years old and she was only 44.

Told by Florence Imogene

Samuel (Sam) Edmundson had a sister named Martha. Martha was born January 9, 1844 and she died April 27, 1906. Martha married June 6, 1861 to John Brickhouse. John was born December 23, 1827. He died in April 1900.

William was 15 years old when his Aunt Martha died. He loved her so much as she always seemed to notice and cared for him so much. He really did miss her and in doing so he was converted 4 months later in August and started thinking about being a minister. He felt it was because of her Christian teaching and influence on him that caused him to lead him to go into the ministry and when 18 he was ordained as a Baptist Minister. When William was 19 he and another preacher were holding a revival meeting at Bethany Church and William preached that night. Bertha White (William's wife to be) was converted and shouted, she was so happy as several other shouted. Two years later on November 3, 1912, William and Bertha got married. When William was 28 he went into the Methodist Church and was there until he retired in the fall of 1953.

Told by Florence Imogene

Samuel (Sam) Edmundson had a brother, Letch. Letch owned a livery stable. Herbert worked for him before he got married in 1920. He would take people to Kennett, Poplar Bluff and other places. His pay was 50c a day. Sometimes it would be midnight before he would get home. The day he got married they had to wait till the preacher came home at 10:00 at night. When they got to their house which they had furnished and had ready to move into, their friends had put a tub of water over their door. When they opened the door, the tub turned over and spilled the water over them. It was the 7th of November so it was cold. Herbert said he didn't think it was too funny but all their friends did.

1925

Herbert and Emma and their three children Leon, Loeta and Leo and Emma's brother Jasper Swinney left Risco, Mo. in a covered wagon. They got to Poplar Bluff, MO., stopped there and had the horses shod at the blacksmiths. Then they spent the night 10 miles South of Poplar Bluff so they could feed and water the horses. They traveled on to Arkansas, stopping at night, always trying to camp near water. They were trying to find a small farm to buy. They travelled on till they came to Aunt Mary Medlin's house. They spent a few days there and looked for ground. They left there and finally ended up back in Southeast MO. They settled West of Malden, MO. In the future they ended up buying a small farm on Crowley Ridge.

Told to Vivian Viola by Herb.

He was a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. (Thursday, 1 March 1888)

CREEL, Silas died at his residence near Good Hope on February 26th, aged 69 years, 11 months, 11 days. He was born in Adair County, Kentucky on 14 March 1818 and came with his parents to this state in 1833. He married Elizabeth Blound on 1 February 1837 and they had 12 children, 7 of whom are living, all are married except for one daughter. At the age of 18 years he joined the Beersheba, now Argyle, congregation of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. He then helped to form the Walnut Grove, now Good Hope, congregation. He had celebrated his golden wedding anniversary on February 1st. Most of his brothers and sisters and all of his children, except one, who resides in Kansas, attended. His wife survives. The funeral was at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church on Thursday. (Thursday, 8 March 1888)

DIXON, Mrs. Catherine died at the residence of her son, Thomas Dixon, in Liberty Twp., Linn County, Kansas on 18 April 1887. Burial was in the Walnut Grove Cemetery. She was born in Koke County, Tennessee on 19 January 1818 and moved with her parents to Indiana in 1832. She married Zacharia Dixon in 1833 and came to Illinois in 1840, settling in the southern part of McDonough County, where she lived until coming to Kansas in 1882. She was the mother of 11 children, 6 dead and 5 living. She was a member of the U. B. Church. (Thursday, 19 May 1887)

DOUGLAS, John of Tennessee, McDonough County died on the 7th. He had been a resident of Tennessee for 20 years. He was born in Maryland in 1814 and was a member of the Methodist Church. He remained in Maryland until 1834 when he came to this county. He was married in 1840 and is survived by a wife and 8 children. The funeral was the 19th with burial in the Hutchinson Cemetery. (Thursday, 12 May 1887)

EDMONSON, John Simpson died at his residence in Good Hope on August 12th aged 87 years. He was born in 1810 in South Carolina but early in life moved with his parents to Tennessee where he grew to manhood and married Frebie Lackey who survives him. In 1830 he came to Fulton County, Illinois where he lived for many years in Deerfield Twp., a few miles southeast of Ellisville. He raised a large family of boys and girls. Several of his sons, including Thomas of the 78th Illinois, served in the Civil War. Thomas died at Good Hope several years ago. W. H. Edmonson of Macomb Twp. is also his son; he served with the 103rd Illinois. In 1864, the deceased moved to Walnut Grove Twp. Another son is John C. Edmonson of Loup City, Nebraska. (Thursday, 18 August 1887)

ERVIN, Hugh married Miss Sarah R. Black on 11 November 1834 in Rockingham County, Virginia. On Sunday, November 11, 1888 they celebrated their 54th wedding anniversary at their residence on South Randolph Street in Macomb. Mr. Ervin is age 78 years and Mrs. Ervin is 75 years. They had 5 children, all now living. Attending the celebration were members of their family: Mrs. M. V. Pearson and 4 daughters; Mrs. Annie F. Venable; Mrs. Henrietta E. Wilson; 2 sons - J. H. Ervin of Chicago and J. B. Ervin of Harper, Kansas could not attend. (15 November 1888)

But nothing was quite so dear to her heart as the Episcopal Church, of which she was an ardent member, contributing generously to its support and taking an active part in all church work. Being a woman, she could not serve on the vestry, but they always advised with her about the management of the Parish.

In St. Stephens Church, on the Alter, are the Six Candlesticks, given by her grand-daughters, in her memory, to the Church she loved so well.

On December third, 1909, at her home in Woodville, two weeks to the day, of her son, Fleming's death, "Old Miss," stricken with grief, passed into the Great Beyond.

Seated sorrowing, with her children and grandchildren, was "Aunt Becky," her faithful cook, whose son Adam was her coachman, and whose mother and father had been the cook and coachman before her.

A few months afterwards, Aunt Becky died too, for she said "Ole Miss was gone, all was gone."

Mrs. duBignon was a true Southern woman of the highest type of the "Old School." Possessed of a brilliant mind, a love of Justice, with a keen sense of humor, an undying interest in all that was going on in the world, and throughout all the years, the irradiating wit of "Ole Miss" kept its sparkle.

She was buried from St. Stephen's Church, and laid beside her husband and boys in the Grantland lot in the Milledgeville Cemetery, where she sleeps beneath "The Shadow of the Cross."

CARO duBIGNON ALSTON

ZACH J. EDMONDSON

Zach J. Edmondson was born in Putnam County, Georgia, November 8, 1838, and died January 9, 1924.

His grandfather, Thomas Edmondson, came from Virginia to Columbia County, Georgia, soon after the Revolutionary War, moving to Putnam when it was in its infancy, and there reared a family well known in later years.

Zachariah Edmondson, son of Thomas Edmondson, and father of Zach J. Edmondson, spent a life time in Putnam County where his broad acres and many slaves ranked him among the wealthiest men of that county.

His wife, Mary Gorley, descended from the Bobos, who with the blood of the Huguenots in their veins, fled from France and came to America, settling in Virginia during the latter part of the seventeenth century.

Young Zach was reared in old time Southern style and knew all of its comforts and luxury. He treasured its customs and traditions, always.

His early lessons were learned in the schools of Eatonton and his college days were spent at Mercer Univeristy (then at Penfield, Georgia).

After graduation, he came home to be the head of his father's affairs; and circumstances ever afterward gave to him the life of a planter.

The War between the States soon followed; the call for volunteers came, and Zach J. Edmondson went with his county to the front, joining the Putnam Volunteers, Co. C., 44th Ga. Regiment, under Colonel Robert Smith. He was secretary and special friend to Colonel Smith. The hardships of a Southern soldier were not unknown to him; but his faithful servant, Jim, often brought to him the best that Virginia could afford.

He was in that fierce charge at Ellison's Mill, where eighty-three were killed, and three hundred wounded, from the seven hundred who went into the fight. While at home, on a sick furlough, he was offered the commission of Adjutant; but he did not return to his former regiment after the death of his good friend, Colonel Lumpkin. Later, he joined Prudden's Battery and was with that command, between Augusta and Milledgeville, when the surrender came.
